Holy Week Speaker

Seth Svaty grew up in the First Presbyterian Church of Ellsworth under the pastoral leadership of his grandfather, the late Rev. Don Ray. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Religion and Philosophy from Sterling College, and a Masters of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary. Following seminary Seth served as pastor of the United Presbyterian Church of Sterling for eight years, and also taught as an adjunct professor at his undergraduate alma mater for five years. He resides in Sterling with his three teenaged kids and now helps manage the family farm south of Ellsworth.

CANTATA

Community Choir

Directed By: David Rankin

Sunday, April 10 @ 4:00

At The First Presbyterian Church

Unique in concept, soaring in spirit, with music, text, and narration by Pepper Choplin,

Come Touch the Robe allows us to encounter the Christ of healing, glory, authority, humility, and victory.

This cantata uses the simple garment that Jesus wore as a thematic device to recount the interaction of those who were with Him during His last days on earth.
